Established construction company with future potential and good earnings
The company was founded by the current owner over 30 years ago. The company's strengths lie in the construction of office and commercial buildings. Another pillar of the company is the realisation of individual shell buildings for single-family houses in high-quality construction. The Renovation, Refurbishment and Repair of Buildings and Structures division also contributes to the company's positive results. The company is 100% financed by the owner. There are neither bank nor leasing liabilities.
