Tanning salon

I hereby offer for sale my fully equipped tanning salon, which has been successfully run for years. The studio has a modern control system as well as seven high-quality sunbeds with a total sales value of 115,000 euros. All maintenance was documented regularly and seamlessly.

The studio has an established and growing customer base, a good location and streamlined operations that allow for a smooth transition. Inventory, equipment and technical accessories are fully included, so that immediate continued operation is possible without additional investments.

Ideal for start-ups or entrepreneurs who want to take over an ongoing business with stable customer frequency.
