Gastronomy

As soon as possible, a successful, franchise-bound system catering restaurant will be sold.

as part of a regulated corporate succession.

The company has been in existence for several years, is fully established, organizationally stable and shows a continuously positive business development with sustainable growth and achieves a six-digit annual result. ROI is achieved in less than 3 years.

The restaurant is mainly run by a well-rehearsed team of employees. There is a restaurant management and a deputy manager, which means that the business is largely run independently. The current owner is primarily active in management and administration.
