Offer Corporate sales, firm sales, sales Plant Nutrition/Plant Fertilizer

Outstanding Opportunity for Investors or Entrepreneurs: For sale is a fully established startup in the field of specialized plant nutrition, focusing on the rapidly growing cannabis market. The company was developed with an emphasis on quality and scalability and is ready for a large-scale market entry.

Asset Highlights:

Product Portfolio: A fully developed range of specialized fertilizers, precisely tailored for cannabis cultivation.

Production & Supply Chain: Lean business model through an established partnership with a highly reliable production partner (white-label/contract filling). No own facilities required.

Digital Presence: Professional, fully functional webshop and complete branding.

Status Quo: Initial revenues have been generated ("Proof of Concept"), and operations are already underway.

Reason for Sale: Due to a focus on other business activities, we are looking for a buyer to exploit the full potential of this setup.

Ideal for: This offer is ideal for e-commerce professionals, existing players in the grow sector, or founders who want to enter the market directly without a lengthy development phase.
