Summary Introduction

For sale is a 44% shareholder share in an established German retail company with a focus on e-commerce in the home & living / renovation sector.

The company has a proven business model, established sales structures and existing market presence. The selling shareholder has resigned from the operational management. In the course of this realignment, the investment is to be transferred to a suitable buyer or investor.

Main part / Detailed information

The company has been active in online retail for years and has built up a resilient position in its market segment. The focus is on products related to wall design, renovation and furnishing. Sales are carried out via digital sales channels, including its own online presence and established marketplaces.

Only the 44% shareholder share is up for sale.
