Offer Corporate sales, firm sales, sales Online food shopping

An online food retailer with over 17,500 customers and a 30% monthly repeat customer rate, generating stable monthly revenue averaging 29,000 euros (gross). The organic certification makes this business particularly attractive to existing entrepreneurs in the food industry with available warehouse space, ideally those with experience in refrigerated goods.

A lean, founder-led setup ensures fast and flexible operations at any location. Product procurement costs—including storage and capital—can be quickly reduced by 15–30%. Labor costs can be significantly reduced, directly boosting profitability.

There are many options with untapped potential in the areas of marketplaces, international expansion, direct imports, and potentially private labels. More information is available upon request.
