Established e-commerce brand | 334.000 € turnover | 80 % gross margin | 10,000+ customers

For sale is an established e-commerce brand in the beauty and teeth whitening sector with a professionally built direct-to-consumer (D2C) business model. The company has a strong brand identity, a modern Shopify store, an existing customer base of over 10,000 customers, and fully built business processes.

The brand has successfully positioned itself in the growing beauty and self-care market, offering high-quality teeth whitening products for use at home. The range is aimed at customers who are looking for a comfortable and cost-effective alternative to classic bleaching treatments.

The portfolio includes innovative whitening products based on gentle PAP+ technology without peroxide. The products are vegan, cruelty-free and also suitable for sensitive teeth.
