Offer Shell companies, Shelf company without operating

Real estate brokerage, asset management, real estate purchase

For sale: A real estate holding GmbH structure acting as a shell (empty GmbHs)—optionally including a cooperative as the parent holding entity—or suitable for a completely new venture.
The two companies have existed since , and the cooperative since 2022; all have received tax advisory services from a "Big 8" firm. They feature active bank accounts with a reputable German bank, excellent credit ratings, no debts or encumbrances, and an existing connection to the DATEV Unternehmen Online platform.
The cooperative offers great flexibility.
The holding GmbH is structured for asset management.
The subsidiary GmbH was previously active in real estate brokerage, acquisitions, etc., and retains this corporate purpose.
The companies are being sold as empty shells; please contact me directly if interested.
The price is negotiable depending on how many of the companies are purchased. Each company can also be acquired individually. Preference will be given to a buyer taking over the entire structure, for which I would offer a significant price reduction.
The cooperative structure is well-suited for those wishing to emigrate while continuing to conduct business in Germany.
Price per individual company: €3,000.00 (negotiable).
