For quite some Time I have been dealing with an Idea that I would classify in the category "eBay" or "Amazon" in terms of sales, marketable, successful and technically simplistic. I am not talking about any Ponzi scheme, I have nothing to do with Finance or advertising, but it is a cheap, interesting, age-independent "Product" that can and will even be viewed in a high-quality way in Terms of "social" and "Morality"!

Before I present My Concern to you, I would first like to document that I am not an oversnapped Tinkerer or non-worldly obsessive, but a Businessman who, in addition to an in-depth vocational Training And Developer of The Merchandise management system (more than 1000 Installations) also had to "nibble" on the Recession of recent Years.
