Musical production

An investor is wanted for a new musical style

Background:

In the currently well-known show productions only one genre is presented. Either musical or magic. For the first time, we have realized a mixture of art forms with one of the best unleashing and illusion artists in Europe and the ensemble of the Starlight Express.

From this filming with the Disneychannel came the concept for a magic musical. The hype on musical productions hasn't abated for years. What many viewers lack, however, is the last kick during the performance.

And that's where our concept starts. An illusion show embedded in the frame of a musical production. One of the best illusionists of our time, together with outstanding musical actors, sketches through art a story. A fairy tale like from 1000 and one night. Magical, mystical and with the eternal struggle for love and suffering.
