Look for Corporate co-operation, firm cooperation

Special travel agency in Munich

Search cooperation with experienced tourism partner.

In order to further establish my well-positioned, future-oriented special travel agency in Munich, I am looking for a lively, PC-savvy and trusting partner (no employee relationship).

The required entry-level capital would be € 15,000,--. The technical infrastructure, all necessary business partner contracts and premises are available.

In addition to experience in the profession and a certain financial cushion for the early days, it is especially important that "the chemistry" is right between us. The ideal would then be a successful partnership that is as long-term as possible.

If you say "That comes as called. " - then please contact me right away...
