

ID 8662

Offer Corporate follow-up, firm follow-up, follow-up

Automation Engineering Mechanical Engineering

Electric technicians with additional business and sales training are looking for a way into self-employment as part of a succession. Many years of successful and versatile professional experience are available.

The company should come from automation technology / mechanical engineering and employ no more than 50 people. The current managing director should still have a reasonable time available to the company for induction and handover.

Succession

Region 32, Germany

Entry in own name

More informations and contact

www.biz-trade.eu/ma-8662.htm