Short exposé

This boutique has been around for 11 years, specialising in women's brand and second-hand fashion.

A large group of regular customers has been closely associated with the business for many years and contributes to a constantly increasing turnover (and earnings). Sales growth in the second quarter of compared to the same period of the previous year was 20%.

The boutique has been based in the county town since the late 1990s. In 2002, he moved to a 1b location in the pedestrian zone, in close proximity to Leffer's crowd.

Recently, the company invested in a high-quality store that gives the store a modern boutique character.

In addition to the owner, a temporary worker has been employed for many years on a 400 euro basis, who can continue to work if interested.
