We are looking for an active partner, with proven sales and marketing expertise in the capital goods sector or in plant engineering, preferably with international contacts. Companies that want to expand their range of services, are looking for new customers and/or are planning greater market penetration are also eligible.

We develop and produce devices for lime and corrosion protection and market them in direct sales. Our clients are:- owners of single- or multi-family houses and residential complexes, hotels and the catering industry, swimming pools and municipal facilities, agriculture, landscaping and horticulture, trades, crafts and industry, - preventive health care facilities and hospitals, retirement homes and rehabilitation facilities

We will distribute the new generation of our devices that are currently being developed exclusively through installers. A large potential for revenue/value increase is to be expected.
